LONG SHOTS HELP LAYERS

HORSES AT LUCRATIVE ODDS FIGURE LARGE LY IN PALMETTO PARK RESULTS.

Gordon and Sherwood Beaten at Odds-on in Close Finishes-Miss Gayle Is Returned Winner of Two-year-old Race.

Charleston, S. C., February 6.—The racing at Palmetto Park this afternoon was marked by close finishes and the victories of several long shots. Summerlike weather was responsible for another generous crowd in attendance at the course. The layers as a result of the bowling over of five favorites, profited extensively and recouped the losses sustained early in the week. The worst disappointment that the players experienced came with the running of the fourth race, in which Sherwood and Amoret fought it out. Sherwood was extensively supported at odds-on and appeared as the probable winner in the stretch, but weakened suddenly in the last sixteenth. This, coupled with overconfident handling, brought about his defeat, Amoret, under Butwell's skilful urging, getting up in the last stride.

The opening dash was thought to call for only a canter by J. L. Holland's Gordon, but at the finishe was third, beaten two noses by Miss Gayle and Ida Cook, Miss Gayle was making her debut, and while her connections consider her a good filly, they did not have any confidence in her ability to beat Gordon, with the result that she was held at 25 to 1 in the betting. Gordon was probably best, but he suffered from a jam at the start. Wildweed and Inspired, both at long odds, finished first and second in the fifth race. Kelly was intended as the medium for a betting coup and might have made good but for suffering a hemorrhage when a quarter from the finish, necessitating his being taken out of contention. The proverbial blanket could have covered Colonel Cook, Floral Day and Wander at the finish of the last race. Floral Day was going strongest of the trio at the end and would have wen in a stride or two more.

Lawton Wiggins has been sold by John Burttschell and will race in the future in the colors of the ranks of the layers as soon as the ring is thrown-open to all.

Jockey J. Wilson has received an offer from John W. Schorr to do the riding for his stable on the Camadian circuit the coming summer, and will probably accept the terms

The stake blanks for the Harford Agriculture and Breeders' Association meeting arrived today and were distributed among the horsemen by Luke Cas-sidy, who is the club's representative at Palmetto Park.

A number of horses in the Bedwell stable are on the ailing list, suffering from fever contracted a few days before the meeting began.

Jockey C. Clement, who is under contract to Mrs. L. A. Livingston, arrived from the Raneocas Farm yesterday and will be seen in the saddle tomorrow. Hugh Penny has received word from jockey Joe Byrne that the latter is getting into condition at Chantilly, in France, to ride for the J. E. Widener stable.

Harry Rites has arrived at Charleston from his Maryland breeding farm.

LONG SHOTS STILL WINNING AT JUAREZ.

Fern L., the Only Successful Favorite Yesterday Runs a Mile in 1:38%.

El Paso, Tex.. February 6.—Long shots continue to 'score at Juarez with wonderful regularity. The only favorite to score today was Fern L. in the sixth race. She ran the mile in the fast time of 1:38%, being in the lead at all times and never seriously menaced. Owner W. C. Claney had to stand a run up of $200 over her entered price of $500 to retain her. C. P. Winfrey did the Bidding.

The card was made up of six selling races and they were all hotly contested. Minnie F. started the ball rolling by winning the opener at 15 to 1. Furlong, a five-year-old, managed to get out of the Furlong, a five-year-old, managed to get out of the maiden class by beating a fair band of sprinters.

The tabulation which appears below, showing in a condensed and comparative way the time records for various distances on American tracks over which racing has been conducted in recent years, may be of some interest and value to readers of Daily Racing Form. ception; on the contrary, he has had more than a full allowance. Nevertheless, there come good times in their turn, and though he had to wait until late in the season the silver lining showed itself when Adam Bede scored his double event for L. Winans in the Duke of York Stakes and the Cambridgeshire. Meanwhile the two 'cracks' in the Lordship string could not be wound up to concert pitch for their various engagements owing to weakness in one leg or another, and the season was drawn blank as far as concerned both Sir Martin and Mercutio, and even had it been otherwise it would seem that their merits have been overestimated in each instance by the handicappers. In spite of all the skill which has been exercised in the direction of veterinary treatment it is pretty certain that they must continue to be a source of anxiety to their trainer, clever as he has shown himself in the treatment of dicky legs, but should the worst come to the worst both these horses should compensate by their future success, at the stud. Sir Martin, of American breed, is a great, big, upstanding son of Ogden and Lady Sterling, of rare power and quality, and unquestionably possessed of high class racing merit, and when he has let down and filled out to the buge frame cannot fail to make up into a grand looking stallion of quality, but I understand that he is to be trained again during the coming season, and if all goes well with him he should quit active service on the turf with honor.

Most of these have been imported from the United States, the exceptions being Rot's Pride, Mimehead, Lady Eileen, Templar, Leeson Park, Arablest, Prince Hai, and Sandhurst. Several of these are undergoing a course of hurdle practice, as, for example, Rot's Pride, Lady Eileen, Leeson Park, and Templar, and to these may be added Dalmatian, Goldbeater, Sir Colin, and Dainty Prince. Among them are some well-grown, good-looking horses, and it will be strange if some of them do not make their mark over the sticks. Mr. Winans has seven two-year-olds to go on with, two of which are en route from America, namely. The Crown, chestnut colt, by Star Shoot—Charter Queen, and Copernicus, by the same sire out of Dingle. From the same country recently arrived Warsaw. a good-looking brown colt, by Ogden—Lady Ogden, a very racing-like youngster, of good size and standing on the best of legs and feet; also Fair Oaks, a well-grown, sturdily built bay colt, by Ogden—Fair Catherine; and Lady Dorcen, a bay filly, sister, to, but in no way resembling. KENTUCKY STATE RACING COMMISSION MEETS AND HEARS PETITIONERS.

5-8 3-4 7-8 1 11-16 11-8 11-4 Amendment to the Rules Proposed Which Provides for Minimum Purse of $600 and Is to Be Acted Upon at Meeting to Be Held March 10.

Lexington. Ky., February 6.—Chairman Milton Young and Messrs. Charles F. Grainger and Thomas Hart Tailbott formed a quorum of the Kentucky State Racing Commission at a meeting held here today. Mr. Taibott appeared before a notary public, took the constitutional oath of office, and was elected vice-chairman in place of the late Major Daingerfield, to succeed whom he was appointed by Gov. McCreary.

A company of breeders, owners and trainers of running horses, headed by Messrs. Fred A. Forsythe of Harrodsburg and Thomas P. Hayes of this city, presented a petition, numerously signed by Kentucky horsemen, asking for an increase in added money stakes and purses on the licensed tracks of this state. After Messrs. Forsythe and Hayes had been heard, it was moved that rule 13 be amended, so that the minimum money to be added to any stake at the Louisville or Latonia tracks shall be $2,000 and to any purse $600 and the minimum to be added to any stake at Lexington $1,000 and to any purse $350.

This represents a raise of $100 on purses at Louisville and Latonia, and $50 at Lexington. Heretofore there has been no minimum amount provided for stakes. This amendment is to be acted upon at a meeting of the commission on March 10 and the various racing associations will be given ample opportunity to be heard upon the subject.

At the suggestion of T. P. Hayes, a new rule fixing fees to jockeys in all races worth $600 or less to the winning hount, and in all other races unless there be an agreement, $10 for a losing mount and $15 for a winning mount, and in all other races unless there be an agreement, $10 for a losing and $25 for a winning mount was proposed. This also will lie over for thirty days.

Action upon applications from associations for licenses and racing dates was deferred until March 10.

The report of W. H. Laudeman, supervisor of the pari-mutuels, was received and filed and Mr. Laudeman

March 10.

The report of W. H. Laudeman, supervisor of the part-mutuels, was received and filed and Mr. Laudeman was reappointed for this year at a salary of $30 per day.

The petition of E. R. Bradley that the authority of the starter to punish jockeys by fines and suspensions be somewhat curbed by making him amenable to and his acts subject to review by the presiding judge, was received and filed.

A rule requiring that "the owner or his representative shall be responsible for the weight his horse carries in any race" was offered, as was also one requiring that where a race is declared off the substitute race shall have the same amount added.

The Duke of Devonshire has named two of his two-year-olds as follows: Brown colt by Black Sand
—Elf, Sandhopper, and chestnut filly by Fugleman—
Simony, Popularity, while his yearling filly by Black Sand—Elfina has been registered Glenschelane,
The loading winners leaf year in the large Me.

The leading winners last year in Italy were Makufa, $27,670, and Sandro, $21,600. Both are now four-year-olds and belong to Sir Rholand, the leading winning owner. Makufa, which is a daughter of Caevaller Ginistrell's old horse, Signorino, has gone to the stud, having finished her racing career.

At the Nice meeting, which concluded on Thursday, January 23, M. James Hennessy was the most successful owner, having won $24,300, with M. A. Veil Pleard second, $21,600 and Baron M. de Rothschild next with $11,000. A. Carter rode nine winners and G. Parfrement seven. The horse to win most money was Galafron, $13,000, while Champaubert was the most successful sire with $13,200.

paubert was the most successful sire with $13,200.

At a recent sale in Argentina eight two-year-old colls by Cyllene sold for $97,765, an average of $12,220. The highest price was brought by Nitrico, a bay out of the mare Sierpe, he selling for $20,090. Ten Cyllene fillies sold for $61,550, or an average of $6,135. About the same time seventeen colts by the young sire Polar Star were sold at auction for an aggregate of $124,960 and an average of $7,355. Ten Polar Star fillies brought $46,245, an average of about $4,625. Evidently the breeding of thoroughbreds in Argentina is a profitable pursuit.

ANTI-BOOKING BILL PASSED IN UTAH.

ANTI-BOOKING BILL PASSED IN UTAH.

Salt Lake City, Utah, February 6.—The lower house of the Utah Legislature yesterday passed the Mabey bill to prolibit poolselling and bookmarking on horse races either at a track or in a poolroom in this state. The Senate had passed a similar bill on Monday last. The passage of this legislation is the result of a crusade which was waged against two poolrooms that had been licensed by the city of Sait Lake, one of which was conducted in the interest of Mont Tennes of Chicago.

Hearings were given in committee last week on the proposed legislation, at which numerous persons appeared, some of whom advocated the passage of legislation that would permit bookmaking at tracks within the state where races were being conducted, but prohibiting it elsewhere. A bill embodying these features was introduced by Representative Kriebel of Salt Lake last Friday and had the backing of the State Fair officials and many prominent citizens, but the Legislature, acting on the report of the committee that handled the matter, passed the bill designed to abolish all poolselling and bookmaking. This measure, which is expected to put an end to racing at the Lagoon track, hear this city, will shortly go to Governor Spry for approval. The Governor bas frequently expressed himself as in favor of racing, but is unalterably opposed to the pool-rooms.

NOTES OF THE TURE.

It has been decided to defer the proposed enlargement of the betting ring at Juarez until next fall.

Lord Gladstone, the Governor-General of South Africa, has offered to present the Durban Turf Club with a cup for South Africau-bred horses, to be competed for in July.

TWO EPSOM DERBY POSSIBILITIES.

There is nothing to report up to date as regards speculation anent the Derby, nor is there likely to be until the return of Mr. Slowburn from his winter Colonial trip. A couple of three-year-olds that have so far impressed good judges at Newmarket by their progress during the recess may be cited in Cantilever and Louvois. The former is a remarkably fine bay colt by Bridge of Canny—Lighthead that ran but three times last year, and showed marked improvement with each succeeding effort. His first appearance was at York when unplaced to Craganour, Fairy King, and Miramichi in the Prince of Wales Stakes, in which he began slowly and rangreen. At his next essay he did better by running Pilliwinkie to a neck for the Triennial Produce Stakes at the First October Meeting, and finally showed his best running of all over the Brethy Stakes course—six furlongs—a fortnight later, when he won the Alington Plate, and, in running clear away from Miramichi, left his Knavesmire form a long way behind. He is the property of Lord Harewood, and trained by C. Leader, and everyone would be pleased to find his owner the possessor of a really high-clars horse. Louvois, by Isinglass—St. Louvaine, and consequently brother to Louviers, which only missed the Derly, by the narrow breadth of a man's hand when Minoru won, was consistently goed last year, when he won four of the half-dozen races in which he took part, and wound up successfully in the Dewhurst Plate. But, as explained in recent notes, there can be little to choose between him and Sanquhar, which was only beaten a short head. Meanwhile, no horse could be wintering better than W. Raphael's sturdy colt.—'Vigilant,' in Londen Sportsman.

WANTS AMERICAN JOCKEY FOR HIGHBRIDGE

WANTS AMERICAN JOCKEY FOR HIGHBRIDGE.

New York, February 6.—John R. Fell of Philadelphia, owner of the steeplechaser Highbridge, entered for this year's Grand National Handicap, will endeavor to engage F. Williams, an American jockey, now riding in France, to pilot his horse in the hig race. Williams is under contract to Charles Kohler and during the recent Nice meeting and at other meetings in France has ridden numerous winners. He is regarded as the best American cross-country jockey now in France.

Mr. Fell would prefer to have an American rider on his horse, and if he fails to get Williams he may engage "Winnie" O'Connor, who is now in France, after having spent nearly five months in this country with relatives. O'Connor saw Highbridge race here. There is much interest in turf and club circles over this effort to win the great English jumping race. Mr. Fell will on February 18 leave on board the Adriatic. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Fell and their two children. The family will spend the remainder of the winter at Nice.

Highbridge, considered the best cross-country horse in America when he left these shores, was really a gift horse from P. S. P. Randolph to his son-in-law, Mr. Fell, His new owner rode him as a two-year-old at horse shows and took numerous prizes with him. Though being trained by a Newmarket trainer, H. T. Medcalfe, Highbridge is never out of the sight of his American handler, James K, Frayling, who practically lives in the horse's stall. It is Mr. Fell's intention to race Highbridge in two or three races prior to the big event at Liverpool.
